

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 1939

Soft Ball Friday

Tryon Rotary and Kiwanis clubs will play a soft ball base ball game Friday afternoon, according to an announcement made today by K. A. Bowen, manager of the Kiwanis team. The game will probably be played at Harmon Field.

AAA Offers Farmers Of County $60,100.00

Farmers of Polk county can earn $60,100 in Agricultural Conservation payments under the 1939 Triple-A Farm Program, it was announced today by E. Y. Floyd, AAA executive officer of State College. Last year they earned $54,138 by complying with acreage allotments and carrying out soil building practices.

Floyd said that farmers who expect to qualify for payments in this year's program should sign an individual farm plan before June 15th, if this has not already been done. To determine whether this requirement has been met, a producer should check his records to see if he has a copy of the Farm Plan. Floyd stated County Agents and local AAA committeemen are prepared to assist every farmer in understanding his soil-depleting acreage allotments, in working out a goal for soil building practices, and in otherwise earning his maximum payment.

In addition to the payments for carrying out soil building practices and complying with soil depleting acreage allotments, a Cotton Price Adjustment payment is

Continued On Back Page

The Bulletin is beginning to receive some nice produce from the farms in payment on subscriptions, such as chickens, eggs, honey, canned fruit, and fresh vegetables of all kinds. Anything of value is acceptable from farmers Dr. J. I. Lee has secured a large king snake for the Tau Rock vineyards because the king snake is said to be an enemy of the rattlesnake. So many rattlers have been seen in the vineyards. A man killed several within a few minutes recently Well, George and Elizabeth will arrive Thursday in Washington for their official American visit. We haven't been invited and don't feel hurt at all. Mrs. Coolidge was invited but she's not going. The Carleton Curtises have been invited to the New York reception where George is to be given a degree or something by Columbia University.

Forest City, N. C., June 6.—Clyde Franklin Scruggs, 15, was found fatally wounded this morning on the floor of a room at the home of the youth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Scruggs, near Henrietta. Coroner Hovis said a shotgun was found near the body and no inquest would be held. The coroner said the youth had been suffering from a heart ailment for some time and had been despondent.

The survivors include the parents, a sister, and a brother.