Fresh Fish!

Very fresh fish, so fresh that they are only about two inches long, were brought to Tryon on Wednesday morning from the government hatchery at Marion, N. C. There were 3,000 of them, and all were put in Skyuka Creek above Lynn, where it is hoped that they will grow to eating and catching size in a couple of years and furnish a lot of sport for home folk and visitors.

TRYON YOUTH AWARDED PRIVATE PILOT TICKET

Raleigh, June 7.—Private flying licenses were given yesterday to 10 N. C. State college students who studied under supervision of the federal government.

The students included: Charles Vernon Fowles of Tryon, son of Mrs. Ella Fowles.

Eugene Turner Honored

When Eugene Turner received his A. B. degree from the University of North Carolina on Tuesday he received an additional honor, the Algernon Sidney Sullivan award established by the New York Southern society in memory of its founder and given to the graduating student for "fine spiritual qualities practically applied to daily living". Eugene has been a prominent leader of young people's activities, having been president of the Glee club, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Scoutmaster, and a Boy Scout with Eagle rank. He received letters in swimming and tract and is the only Tryon man qualified to give instruction in life saving under the rules of the American Red Cross.

In Country Life

The current issue of the magazine, Country Life, carried a two page illustrated story of Jack R. Kimberly's country estate at Winnebago Lake in Wisconsin. About a dozen attractive pictures showing the interior of the house and beautiful grounds were shown. Also was mentioned the Tryon Hounds and an old house which was torn down and moved from Tryon to help make the beautiful Kimberly place in Wisconsin. In the same issue of Country Life were other pictures taken in Tryon during Horse Show time. One was of Miss Anne Ordway, of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., one of Miss Celeste Wakem of Chicago and another of Miss Audrey Hasler of Little Silver, N. J., who has visited Tryon.

Soft Ball Friday

The Rotary and Kiwanis soft ball baseball teams will play their first games of the season on Friday at 5 p. m., at Harmon Field. A "Ball the Jack" team named for Ballenger-Jackson Co., has been formed to challenge any team in town and it is composed of Elbert Arledge, Joe Anderson, Carl Fortner, Dean Shields, Broadus Mills, Dewey Cooksey, George Cooksey, Frank Wall, Jack Melton, Matt O'Shields.

Sharp At Rotary

Major Bernard Sharp will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale Log Cabin. He will speak on the Jewish situation.
