

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1939

Merchants Meet Today

A meeting of Tryon merchants will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Missildine's Hall for the purpose of discussing the closing of stores on Thursday afternoons during the summer.

Headlines

The Japanese and British are still passing notes to each other. Britain tells Japan to quit searching British ships and British persons and remove the blockade on the British concession in Tientsin. Japan says you stop helping Chiang Kai-shek. Japs say they will continue to rule in the East.

Senator Barbour finds foreign spies are covering the United States. J. Edgar Hoover is increasing the government's secret agents in Pacific Coast sections.

Jim Farley says Democratic party can run on its own record achievement. He says Republicans have two courses to follow: endorse New Deal or follow Herbert Hoover.

Attorney General Murphy wants to cut billion dollars off federal officers payroll.

King George and Queen Elizabeth sailed Thursday from Halifax, Nova Scotia. 150,000 people waved them goodbye.

Asheville is preparing for its annual Rhododendron Festival. June 18th to 24th.

The Episcopal Auxiliary opened at Kanuga Lake on Thursday morning.

The United States has received only 80c for each $10,000 of the war debt due us.

Vegetable Refrigerator At Andrews & Swann

The page advertisement in today's issue of the Bulletin praises the merits of the new meat refrigerator counter just installed at Andrews & Swann, but it failed to mention a new electric refrigerator show case for the display of fresh vegetables which are kept garden fresh all the time until delivered to the customer. The new counter will enable the store to carry a larger variety of fresh vegetables the year 'round.

Rotary Wins Again

Tryon Rotarians defeated the Kiwanians 19-15 in a softball game on Thursday afternoon at Harmon Field. The battery for Rotary consisted of Blois and Armfield; for Kiwanis Brady and Butler. A large crowd turned out to see three games. Just before the Kiwanis-Rotary game the Adams-Millis players had a game and following the civic club game a group from the Ballenger-Jackson team and others had a game.

Big Barbecue

A large number of friends, and public officials enjoyed the hospitality of C. J. Lynch on Thursday evening at 6:30 at Harmon Field when he served a barbecue meal with all the fixings, including cornbread, slaw, tomatoes, cucumbers, rice, gravy, 'taters, coffee. Dr. Derby's band furnished the music and the spirit of fellowship prevailed with song and dancing, and minstrel fun.