

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 1939

CURB REPORTER

Softball games in this section are being enthusiastically received. Hardly a day passes that some group is not playing. One day at Harmon Field there were three groups playing . . . Playground Commissioner C. J. Lynch says more money is needed to put on the big Fourth of July celebration. Send your donation to K. A. Bowen, Julian Hester, D. S. Blois, George A. Cathey or leave at Bulletin office . . . Nice shower Monday. Crops appreciated it . . . Bill Baker, staff photographer for the North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development was the guest of President E. Perry Manville of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce during the weekend and he took several attractive pictures of the community which he hopes to use in advertising this section . . . Carl Goerch's State Magazine, Raleigh, came out in 72 attractive pages on Saturday, a special edition, celebrating North Carolina Day at the New York World's Fair; 4,000 Tar Heels attended the celebration in New York on Monday. Gov. Hoey made a speech . . . The grand parade of the Rhododendron Festival will be held in Asheville on Wednesday morning; expected to be three miles long . . .

Boy Scout Camp Opened Monday

The Piedmont Boy Scout Camp officially opened its 1939 season, the fifteenth year of its operation at Lake Lanier, on Saturday, June 17th, at which time a conference of Scout leaders from the eleven counties of the council area, more than one hundred men, were in attendance. Frank D. Wood, Regional Chairman on Cubbing, of Atlanta, Ga., was present for the conference to advise with men interested in the Cubbing program for boys of pre-Scout age, nine, ten, and eleven years of age.

On Sunday morning Judge Bismark Capps, of Gastonia, President of the Piedmont Council, conducted the devotional service. Nelson Jackson, Jr., Council Vice-President, and Major Bernard Sharp, Chairman of the Committee on Camping of the Council, represented Tryon and Polk county at the meeting.

The conference was one of the most successful ever held at the camp according to the officials of the council, and the visitors were loud in their praise of the great growth and development that has taken place at the camp during the past several years. Frank D. Wood, of Atlanta, who has visited all the Scout camps in the South, paid especial compliment in stating that in his opinion the Piedmont Council Camp was the finest he had seen.

Scout troops of the Piedmont area arrived at the camp Monday morning. The units consisted of Troop 3, Morganton, composed of
--- Continued On Back Page ---