CURB REPORTER

Thanks to thoughtful friends all over the United States the Bulletin is furnished little bits of information here and there about Tryonites and their activities all over the world. Some one brings in an advertisement from the New York Times presenting with pride Ginger Rogers and David Niven in "Bachelor Mother" at Radio City Music Hall, N. Y., Rockefeller Center Another from a Duluth, Minn., paper shows a charming picture of Margaret Cullin Banning entertaining the Crown Princess of Denmark From the Washington, D. C., Post is an attractive picture of a group of girls in the "Geisha," an entertainment presented by the Columbia Light Opera Co., and prominently shown in the group of actresses is Cora Lipscomb, formerly of Tryon Wilfrid Zogbaum, son of Capt. and Mrs. Rufus, is doing the decorative and map painting for the Swiss government pavillion at the World's Fair Charles G. Sewall, the minister at Christmas Cove, Maine, notes what the Walter Howells have to say about the weather and says "They are correct! Coldest weather that I remember at this time of year for forty years." Wednesday's Spartanburg Herald had two pictures of Lake Lanier scenes, one
