

Gifts To St. Luke's Hospital

There is a constant stream of little gifts and big gifts and kindly services rendered by the people of this community for the benefit of those who are patients in St. Luke's hospital. The board of trustees wish to make grateful acknowledgement of these heart-warming evidences of the fact that our hospital has an abiding place in the thoughts of our people. Since our last notice in the Bulletin we have received the following:

Flower vases from Mr. and Mrs. George Cathey and Mrs. Carter Brown; a constant supply of cut flowers from St. Agnes Guild; flowering plants from Mrs. Julian Calhoun, Mrs. S. A. Bingham, Mrs. Bernard Sharp, Mrs. Willie B. Andrews, Mrs. J. B. Hester, Sr., Mrs. DuBois Knight, Mrs. Dargan Lowe, Mrs. F. P. Bacon; vegetables from Mrs. Allen Jervey and Mr. Osbon Richards; flower shears and books from Mrs. Sam Bingham, Sr.; chair cover, curtains, books and vase from Miss Helen Roberts; baby blankets from Miss Laura Peasley; hospital supplies from Rev. and Mrs. Gillespie; concrete repair work from Mr. Jack Gaze; carpenter work from Mr. W. W. Creasman; publicity and advertising by Mr. Seth M. Vining.

The Board of Trustees.
