Attractive card from Mrs. Meehan from Damascus In a letter to B. L. Ballenger Eugene Turner writes from China that the Chinese are hopeful of an early victory due to the financial condition of the Japs. He enclosed a Sino-Japanese bill, worth about one-sixteenth of an American penny. It is marked one-half cent but the Chinese refuse to use the currency, hence it has little value. The army and other regulations have failed to keep the money at par. The Chinese say that they are stronger than ever and will get peace without any overtures on their part. They heard Charlie McCarthy over the radio for the first time in the middle of June. The collapse of former social and educational machinery has greatly increased the opportunities of the Y. M. C. A. and they are meeting the needs with a program embracing all forms of religious, welfare, educational and recreational work. A freak ear of corn was brought to a local store by a farmer the other day. It looked as if the ear and tassel had grown together or some wheat or oats had tried to live on the same ear with the corn Andrews & Swann's new front looks right nice. Instead of having the doorway in the middle of the store, now has one big glass front and

Harmon Field Conflicts

Playground Commissioner C. J. Lynch states that on account of the increasing popularity of Harmon Field it would be necessary for people expecting to play games or have picnics there to get permission from him in order that conflicts in dates and time may be avoided and also that tables for picnickers may be provided in advance. He states that he is eager for as many people as possible to enjoy the conveniences and facilities of the playground and make use of it for the most good to the greatest number.

Softball Results

Two softball games were played at Harmon Field between showers on Thursday afternoon. The Ball-the-Jacks defeated Landrum Terrors in a five-inning struggle which was stopped by rain. Score 9 to 3. Immediately following the shower the Bushwhackers took the field and defeated the Ballew Devils 23 to 9. Bushwhackers and Soumerco will play this afternoon at 6:30 at Harmon Field to complete the first round of two weeks engagements.

What's In Your Attic?

Have you ever thought back in your mind at the possibility of remembering things that have been forgotten, things that can be of use today? Did anyone in your family ever use a wheel chair? The Kiwanians need another wheel chair to loan out to invalids needing it temporarily. If you know of such a chair please communicate with C. J. Lynch or the Bulletin.
