

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, AUG. 8, 1939

Softball!

Yesterday

The Landrum Terrors defeated the Ball-the-Jacks at Harmon Field by a score of 10 to 5 in a hard fought game.

Today

The Soumerco team plays the Bushwhackers this afternoon at 6:30 at Harmon Field.

Wednesday

Ball-the-Jacks and Soumerco will play at Harmon Field at 6:30. All these games are free to the public.

ATTENDING CONVENTION

James M. Baker of the Automatic Heating Company is attending a convention of Iron Firemen Automatic Stoker dealers at Greensboro.

IN CONFERENCE

Supt. W. A. Schilleter of the Tryon schools left today for Raleigh for a conference with State School officials and the State Attorney General concerning local school affairs.

KIWANIS THURSDAY

The inter-club meeting of the Tryon, Hendersonville, Rutherfordton and Greer clubs will be held on Thursday night at Oak Hall hotel at 7:15 o'clock. Each club will contribute about five minutes each to the entertainment of the evening. Club songs and a spirit of fun will dominate the meeting. The ladies have been invited and indications point to an attendance of about 125 people.

CURB REPORTER

Old timers are amazed at the many new faces seen on Trade street and in the stores this summer. Tryon is growing, but the old friendly spirit is the same. The theatre has good crowds, the softball games are drawing good attendances, and there is always somebody fishing, swimming, playing golf, tennis, bridge and other games, also numerous picnics and programs to interest according to taste . . . Mrs. Eva Smith is now at West Jefferson and is taking The Bulletin . . . Congressman Zeb Weaver knew that Congress was adjourning so one of the first things he did was to have his Bulletin changed from Washington to Asheville . . . Judge Miller C. Foster of Spartanburg who went to Washington in the Commerce Department under Secretary Roper was due to join his family at Lake Lanier during the weekend. Judge Foster has been in charge of the government investigations of airplane crashes . . . President C. M. Douglas of Breward is calling a meeting of the Western North Carolina Press Association in Asheville on Saturday at the S&W . . . The F. P. Bowes and Lefty Flynn have taken a cottage on the beach at Edgartown, Mass. . . . Four school children at Edgartown publish a little weekly paper just one col-
---Continued on Back Page---