

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUG. 9, 1939

Miss Missildine Is Wed To Mr. Collum

The Erskine Memorial Congregational church and the Sunday school rooms were filled to overflowing with hundreds of friends on Tuesday evening when Miss Edith Missildine, a member of the church choir and a teacher in the Sunday school, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Henry Collum.

The attractive vine covered rock church was beautifully decorated in the interior with white gladioli, and white hydrangeas against background of dark green ivy, and lighted candles on two large candlebras. It was a brilliant event. Mrs. John R. Ferguson of Spartanburg played the wedding music. Following the bridesmaids, ushers and matron of honor the bride entered the church on the arm of her father as the organ played the wedding march. She was beautifully attired in a white satin gown cut on princess lines with long sleeves and round collar. The dress buttoned down the back to the waist. The short train was of satin and lace. Her veil was of white illusion with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bouquet was white gladioli with baby's breath and tube rose streamers.

The groom and his best man, Mr. James B. Andrews, awaited the bride at the altar. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln. The matron of honor, sister of the bride, was Mrs. Willard C. Thayer, of Alton, Ill. She wore a dress of rose pink net over taffeta, with short puffed sleeves and a full skirt, trimmed

Continued on Page Three

Tournament Results

The semi-final round championship results at the Tryon Country club are as follows: First flight—Earl Rion won from Marion Palmer 2 and 1; Edward Sayre won from Bert Arledge 4 and 3. Second flight—J. W. Taylor won from F. S. Wilcox 4 and 3; (Bacon and Switzer to be played). Third flight—E. Rowe won from J. W. Marshall 2 up; (J. M. Baker and J. Rowe to be played).

Consolation: First flight—Nelson Jackson, Jr., won from B. G. Henry 7 and 6; Baxter Haynes won from Tommy Marshall 7 and 6. Second flight—J. Calhoun and B. Dobson to be played; Bob Adams won from C. H. Helms one up; third flight—K. A. Bowen won from William Flentye by default; Robert Green won from J. R. Trowbridge 2 up. Fourth flight—Marshall Ballew won from J. M. Baker, Jr., 3 and 2; Jim Kinloch won from Doug Blois 3 and 2.

Finals in all flights will be played this weekend. Earl Rion and Edward Sayre will play 36 holes for the championship; 18 holes will be played Saturday afternoon and 18 holes on Sunday afternoon starting at 2:30. Both Rion and Sayre shot 73 in their semi-final matches. So some real hot golf will be on exhibition. All flights except the championship will be for 18 holes.

COMMUNITY NEEDS TO BE ROTARY SUBJECT

Attorney M. R. McCown will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnysdale Log Cabin and he will discuss the "Needs of the Community."