

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, AUG. 14, 1939

Forest City Firm Buys Columbus Mill

The Katterman - Mitchell Silk Mill in Columbus which closed down in the spring has been sold to the Forest City Cotton Company and will be used as a bonded warehouse temporarily, it is said, and will be known as the Farmers Bonded Warehouse.

Morgan P. Bodie of the Forest City company has stated that the plant in Columbus would be used for storage only until such time as conditions warrant it being used as a manufacturing plant.

Kiwanis Tuesday

Attorney Tom Lises of Spartanburg will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis meeting on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. The program will be in charge of L. P. Barnette.

Mother of Dr. Gould Killed In Wreck

Mrs. Olivia Gould of Spartanburg, mother of Dr. Charles K. Gould, dentist of Landrum, was killed in an automobile collision on Sunday evening as she was riding with two other women in a car which collided with an automobile driven by Isaiah Johnson, a Negro. Johnson was lodged in the Spartanburg county jail pending an inquest today. The accident occurred near the Spartanburg city limits on the new highway in front of the Cleveland Bible church where the three women had just attended services. Mrs. Gould was prominent in social, religious and music circles.

Tryon District Schools Open Monday, Sept. 4

The Tryon District Schools will open for the 1939-40 session on Monday, September 4th, at nine o'clock. Every thing is in readiness for school to open and the faculty is looking forward to a successful year.

There are several changes in the faculty for the coming year. Miss Elizabeth Avant succeeds Mrs. Eunice Watson as teacher of the Third grade; Mrs. Watson succeeds Mrs. C. W. Kittrell in the First grade; Mrs. Kittrell takes the First and Second grades at Lynn. Miss Mary Betts of _____ will also teach the First grade at Tryon. The vacancy created by the resignation of Miss Betty Doubleday as teacher of the Seventh grade has not been filled, but several applications are under consideration.

The faculty for the 1939-40 session is as follows:

W. A. Schilleter, Superintendent, teacher of biology and commercial geography.

M. B. Caldwell, high school principal, teacher of mathematics and science.

Miss Myrtle Baldwin, teacher of French and history.

Miss Annie Sevier, teacher of English, sociology and economics.

Miss Elizabeth Watson, teacher of home economics.

Miss Walter Jones, music.

Miss Virginia Heath and Miss Betty Fauntleroy, teachers of Bible education.

B. L. Lands, director of high school band.

Mrs. W. A. Schilleter, commercial

— Continued on back page —