WILL OF MARY EMBURY FILED FOR PROBATE

The will of the late Miss Mary E. Embury, who died here last Thursday, was filed for probate with Robert S. McFarland, clerk of Polk county Superior court today (Thursday).

The will listed approximately $25,000 composed mostly of stocks and bonds and named as chief beneficiary Domestic & Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Diocese of Western North Carolina. To this society went all real and personal property, with the exception of several pieces of furniture that were given to Mrs. T. E. Kell and the Rev. C. P. Burnett of Tryon, and $900 and the remainder of a trust fund that was left to a brother of Miss Embury, who died about four years ago, to Miss Adelaide Dunning of Tryon.

The Wachovia Bank & Trust Company of Asheville was named executors.

Tom Lises Speaker At Kiwanis

Attorney Tom Lises of Spartanburg and Tryon was the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club meeting on Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Hotel Tryon. The speaker's subject was the Crisis is Moral in which he pointed out that our troubles were not so much political and economic as moral ones which prevent the world from dealing honestly and fairly with all its problems. P. L. Barnette had charge of the program. The next meeting will be in charge of George A. Cathey.
