

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., AUG. 23, 1939

CURB REPORTER

Thanks to James B. Hester for some nice large yellow tomatoes raised in his garden . . . Joynes Macfarlan, AP Correspondent, who is spending his vacation in Saluda used to come to Oak Hall years ago with his father, a prominent lawyer of Darlington, S. C. . . . The boat races at Lake Lanier on Sunday were thrilling events. Three of the boats turned over in the water and 2,000 people grasped in excitement . . . The dangers of traffic congestion on Trade street can be helped a lot by widening the street under the trees to the railroad track and removing the cane bushes opposite the post office. This would widen the street in places nearly the length of an automobile. . . . Britain pledges anew its policy to stand by Poland even though Germany and Russia have signed a non-aggression pact . . . U. S. making plans to move Americans out of Europe. Chamberlain summons parliament and will ask for dictatorial powers. French army calls 600,000 more soldiers . . . Japanese think Germany has "sold them out" . . . 23,404 people in North Carolina have lost their licenses for driving while drunk.

The Saluda band school closed last week and the members have returned to their homes. The last concert of the season was given on Sunday afternoon.

Softball Results

Tryon Boys' club and Ball-the-Jacks battled to a 11 to 11 tie in a sixth inning softball game at Harmon Field on Tuesday afternoon. Battery for Boys' club: Taylor and H. McGeachy; for B-J: Mize, O Shields and Wall. Today the Bushwhackers will play the Kilowatters at 6:30. On Thursday the game will be played between Soumerco and Ballew's Grocery.

Flag Tournament

Edgar Rowe of the Tryon Country club tournament committee announces a Flag Tournament for this weekend at the local golf links. This kind of event always proves interesting.

Judge At Kiwanis

The regular program at the Kiwanis club being unavoidably changed on Tuesday at noon at Hotel Tryon visitors at the club were invited to participate in a general discussion and a very entertaining result followed. Among the interesting speakers were Judge Wilson Warlick and Solicitor C. O. Ridings of the Superior Court, Attorney J. E. Shipman of Hendersonville and Kiwanians Brunson and Shields of Cocoa, Fla., and State Rural Farm Architect, Harris of Raleigh. The meeting next Tuesday will be in charge of W. B. Wigel

Smith At Rotary

Dudley C. Smith, who recently returned from Europe will be in charge of the Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale Log Cabin.