

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPT. 1, 1939

Gaze—Martin

Miss Mary Elizabeth Gaze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gaze, became the bride of Mr. Clarence Elwood Martin on Thursday evening at the Tryon Presbyterian church. Rev. D. M. McGeachy, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiated.

The church was decorated with ivy, white dahlias, gladioli, hydrangeas and clematis. Mrs. Walter Jones played the wedding music. Miss Elizabeth Thackston sang "At Dawning"; Miss Margaret Sprague played a violin solo, "Oh! Promise Me," and Mr. George Cooksey sang, "I Love You Truly."

The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a traveling dress of blackberry with black accessories. Her corsage was of tube rose and sweetheart roses.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Agnes Suttle, of Charlotte. Brother of the groom, Mr. Alonzo Martin, of Kernersville, N. C., served as best man.

A reception for the wedding party, out-of-town guests and a few close friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gaze, after which the bride and groom left for a short motor trip.

Rotary Today

Senator F. P. Bacon had charge of the Tryon Rotary club program today and conducted an interesting "Get Acquainted" program in which the members were asked to tell about themselves, where they came from and why they came to Tryon, etc.

Softball Finals Winding Up A Big Season

The Bushwhackers defeated the Ballew Grocery softball team on Thursday afternoon in the semi-finals of the softball season. The score was 8 to 4.

Beginning Monday afternoon the final games for the championship of the local league will be played between the Bushwhackers and the Kilowatters. The title will go to the team winning two of the scheduled three-game series. Attendance at these final games is expected to be large. No admission will be charged.

CURB REPORTER

Radio commentators report that German troops and airplanes have invaded Poland and that 16 German planes have been shot down. The Germans have bombed Warsaw, the capital and other Polish cities. England and France have given Germany only a few hours time in which to order her soldiers from Polish soil or the French and English will declare war on Germany. Danzig, has already been united with Germany upon declaration of Hitler Talk about leaning on shovels all you want to but a fellow this morning reported seeing a hitchhiker on the road to Landrum where the railroad runs parallel with the highway. The hitchhiker was sitting on a crosstie thumbing cars. He didn't have enough energy to stand up unless a car stop-

—Continued on Back Page—