Mrs. Hamilton Buys McMillan House

The John E. McMillan house in Gillette Woods, formerly occupied by the Wm. R. Condicts of Chicago, has been bought by Mrs. Schuyler Hamilton, formerly of Red Banks, N. J., and Summer-ville, S. C. Mrs. Hamilton came to Tryon about two years ago and has lived at the Metcalf cottage and Mamosa Inn cottage. She brought her beautiful horse and dog with her and has spent much of the past two years riding over the scenic trails in this vicinity. After giving the outdoor climate a thorough test the year 'round she decided on Tryon for her permanent home. The sale was made through G. Harrison Bridgeman.

Tryon Baptists Move Into A New Annex

On Sunday, September 10, will be a day which will be long remembered by the congregation of the First Baptist church. This will be the day when the Sunday school will enter formally into the new educational annex. For over a year the congregation has been wishing, working, and wondering just how long it would be before they could call the job complete. The day is at hand when the building is complete and on Sunday the people will rejoice as they worship in teaching begins, with adequate room for all activities.

The building contains fourteen rooms. Of these there are ten class rooms, two rest rooms, dining
