Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-26 TRYON, N. C., WED., SEPT. 13, 1939

It is hard for local fans to give up softball games even after the season is over. The Landrum Terrors came up Tuesday afternoon and defeated the Champion Bushwhackers 9-7 at Harmon Field . . . The Tryon Daily Bulletin has entered a number of colleges this week, going to Ruth McFarland at Queens-Chicora, Charlotte, Bill Ward at Georgia Tech, Theo Kerhulas at Clemson, Kathryn Ker-hulas at Winthrop, Edward Sayre at N. C. State and Ruby Alice Clark at a secretarial school in Orangeburg, S. C. The Bulletin tuition to any college in the U.S. for nine months is only $1 . . . The Canadian government informs this paper in a letter today that "No restrictions of any kind have been imposed, or are likely to be imposed, on tourists from the United States into Canada. In words, tourist traffic may flow freely across the border between the United States and Canada despite the conditions which have been brought about as a result of the war in Europe." . . . And that reminds us of the convenience offered in Monday's ad by Manville & Hunt of Tryon who are agents for the Eastern Air Lines, Trans-Western and Pan American Airways. Also all Atlantic Steam-ship Lines and reservations can be made at their office . . .

David Niven Called to War

David Niven is the first of Hollywood's dream princes to be ordered back to England to join his regiment and take part in the grim realities of war.

He was in the midst of work on "Raffles" when the sinister little card bearing an official government stamp was delivered to him. Samuel Goldwyn immediately stopped all work on "Raffles."—New York News.
