Polk Now Has A Full Time State Patrolman

Patrolman Robert Miller of Robbinsville, N. C., assumed his duties Friday as full-time highway patrolman for Polk county. His headquarters will be in the old city hall on Maple street in Tryon.

Patrolman Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Miller of Robbinsville, is a graduate of the Highway Patrol Training Camp recently concluded near Hendersonville, N. C., and was regularly assigned on the 1st of September of this year.

Already busy checking faulty lights and drivers' licenses, Patrolman Miller says that he wishes to call the attention of drivers in Polk county to the recently enacted state law that requires the dimming of lights on meeting cars at night on the highway, and also to the fact that a state driver's license examiner will be in Tryon on Monday, September 18th for the purpose of issuing driving licenses, and will be at the old City Hall from 1 p. m., to 4:30 p. m. After Monday, a drive will be started by the patrolman on drivers without proper licenses in this section—and no alibis will be accepted.

Patrolman Miller also stressed the fact that cases will be made against operators of cars without taillights and with only one headlight. All Polk county highways will be patrolled by Mr. Miller.
