TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPT. 19, 1939

CURB REPORTER

Of interest to many Tryonites is a copy of The Polk County News of April 4, 1907, loaned to The Bulletin by Eb Fisher. It is addressed to his father, the late Senator J. C. Fisher. The paper at that time was published in Columbus and T. C. Croker was the editor. There were no automobile advertisements, but one of harness, buggies and wagons. S. B. Edwards was clerk of court, F. M. Burgess, register of deeds; Geo. B. Logan was manager of Tryon Hosiery Co., at Lynn. Geo. A. Gash had the Tryon Supply Co.; J. H. Gibbs, county surveyor, had lost his "Jacob Staff" brass head with ball and socket; on the jury list were A. J. Dimsdale, Harold Doubleday, John Orr, T. M. Ruppe, W. A. Cannon, Q. C. Sonner, L. C. Gibbs, B. L. Ballenger, J. M. Butler, W. E. Strong, J. D. Carpenter and others. The Bank of Tryon advertised capital stock of $10,000. Joseph Norwood was president. The directors included T. T. Ballenger, E. E. Missildine, J. B. Hester, B. L. Ballenger, F. P. Bacon, E. C. Wilcox. W. C. Roberts was sheriff. In the whole of Tryon township only 32 names were listed for delinquent taxes and the total number of taxes due in the township was less than $300. Only 21 people in Green Creek hadn't paid their taxes and the total amount

Tryon - Saluda Football Team

The Tryon-Saluda football team will be composed of many veteran players this year with a number of young reserves. In order to get the fans better acquainted with the players a few pictures of the Tryon boys have been placed on a poster in Missildine's window. These do not represent the entire squad and later on another group will be shown.

A summary of the team shows Taylor and Alex Beatson at end, with Cooksey, Bradley, and Cartee as reserves. The tackle positions are well fortified with big Homer Shields and Bill Swann able to take care of things with the help of Parker and Rhodes. There are six men out for guard. Seth Vining and H. O. McCallister have had experience at this position while Coon, Derby, Pratt, and Hilton are new. Locke McGeachy, the third of a series of brothers to play center seems capable of holding down the pivot place with Pace being an understudy.

The back field seems to be in better shape this year than in previous years with an array of eight men. Green, Jones, and Dutton Beatson are triple threat men with previous experience. The fourth back field place will come out of Melton, Beatson, Wall, Cooper and Holbert. All these men will probably see action in the opening game with Inman Friday, September 22, at Harmon Field.
