Tryon-Saluda Vs. Inman Hi On Friday

The Tryon-Saluda football team is fast rounding into shape for the opening game with Inman high on Friday, September 22nd. This is the first game of the season for the locals and will be played at Harmon Field beginning at 3:30. The Inman team opened up last Friday with Boiling Springs and dropped a close decision 6 to 0. Last year the visitors lost only one game out of nine and have another good squad. Tryon-Saluda will be greatly improved this year with most of the men in the starting line-up having had some experience. The only questionable places on the team will be one of the half back positions and one of the guard places. These will have to be filled from new men or from reserves of last year with no man of much playing time in previous games. At present the starting line-up looks like Alex Beatson and Harold Taylor at ends, Homer Shields and Bill Swann at tackles, Vining and either Hilton or McCallister at guards, Locke McGeachy at center, Jones at quarterback, Dutton Beatson at left half, Green at right half, and either Melton or Ed Beatson at right half. If the game goes well all of the new men will get a chance to show their wares.

Since the games with Inman have always been close and exciting, the fans will do well to come out to this game as the visitors will furnish strong opposition for an opening game and have not been scheduled for a set-up.

DuCHARME-BRANNON RITES HELD SATURDAY

The following account of the DuCharme Brannon wedding as it appeared in a Detroit newspaper, will be of interest to their friends in Tryon:

"Miss Isabel DuCharme, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bagley DuCharme of Grosse Pointe, on Saturday afternoon was married to George Smith Brannon of Tryon, N. C."

"The marriage took place in Christ Church Chapel, Grosse Pointe, at 4 o'clock. The Rev. service.

Francis B. Creamer, rector of the church, read the Episcopal wedding

"The church was simply but effectively decorated in white and green with cybotium ferns on each side against the choir pews and cathedral candles at the entrance to the chancel. On either side of the altar seven-branch candlesticks held white candles. The altar vases were filled with white glad-ioli and white asters.

"Mrs. Charles A. DuCharme II was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were: Miss Grace Hecker, Miss Barbara Caulkins, Miss June Meder, Miss Eugenie Wright and Miss Mary Webber. Baxter Haynes of Tryon, N. C., was best man.

"The ushers included: Jerome C. DuCharme and Charles A. DuCharme II, brothers of the bride; George R. Fink, Jr., of Grosse Pointe; Samuel Bingham of Tryon, N. C., and Carroll Rogers of Burnsville, N. C.

"The attendants were all dressed alike in changeable taffeta models shading from American Beauty to gold and wore tiny velvet hats
