

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolinas

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPT. 22, 1939

Football Today

The football game today will begin at 3:30 with Inman bringing a strong team to Harmon field promising to give the locals a great game. The game last year resulted in a 20 to 12 victory for Inman and Tryon-Saluda is anxious to start the season with a victory.

The Tryon-Saluda line-up will probably be: Alex Beatson, l. e.; Swann, l. t.; Vining, l. g.; McGeachy, c.; Hilton or McCallister, r. g.; Shields, r. t.; Taylor, r. e.; Jones, q. b.; Dutton Beatson, l. h.; Green, f. b.; Melton or Ed. Beatson, r. h.

Referee: Dunlap (Presbyterian college); umpire, Buchanan (W. C. T. C.); field judge, Jackson, (Virginia); headlinesman, Winget (P. C.)

News Headlines

Congress opens battle over the President's request to lift the arms embargo. Roosevelt's message generally received with great favor.

Some think the assassination of the Roumanian prime minister begins complications for Germany's next step in the drive to the East. King Carol promptly took charge and appointed another prime minister. Assassins executed.

Germany holds the lead in the naval warfare with England, having sunk 47 ships and lost only nine according to reports.

Tryon-Saluda band will play this afternoon at the football game between Inman and Tryon-Saluda. Each fan increases the enthusiasm for victory.

CURB REPORTER

Postmaster C. O. Cooper of Saluda reports that Polk's mountain resort had a nice season of summer visitors. The attractive long green benches on the wide sidewalks in Saluda remind you or Hendersonville and St. Petersburg, Fla., and the visitors enjoy using them. The war in Europe should prevent a lot of foreign travel and bring more visitors to Tryon this winter and Saluda next summer . . . Missildine's Pharmacy is putting in a new soda fountain. Trade street is certainly undergoing a lot of changes to make the business angle more attractive. The new bank building may not be colossal or stupendous, but no one can deny that it isn't the most modern and one of the most attractive for its purpose to be found anywhere. It is really a good show just to look at and peep through the door whether you have money or not. It makes you feel good to know that some people have made money and managed so efficiently that they can erect such a nice building for all the community to enjoy . . . Now, that really was a great picture at Tryon Theatre last night and a number of the people who saw it before enjoyed it a second time. Manager Nessmith says that a news reel of President Roosevelt making his speech to congress

-----Continued on Back Page-----