Peggy Davenport

Little Miss Peggy Davenport, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davenport, died this morning around 4 o'clock at the home in Columbus. She had been ill for about a year and had been able to attend school only one year.

Funeral services will be held at the Tryon Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. D. M. McGeachy, officiating. The pallbearers will be John R. Burgess, Caton Dedmond, Robert McFarland, W. G. Egerton.

Besides her parents, the deceased was survived by both of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Davenport of Tryon, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hague of Mill Spring.

Tryon - Saluda Eleven Defeats Inman High

The Tryon - Saluda high football team defeated Inman high 7 to 0 yesterday in a well-played football game at Harmon Field. The visitors as predicted brought a shifty, well-coached eleven to the local gridiron and all but eked out a scoreless tie. The game ended in a rousing finish with both elevens having possession of the ball during the last two minutes of play. Inman's passing attack was broken up when Tryon's quarterback, Jones, intercepted a pass in midfield and ran fifteen yards before being downed. Then by a series of beautiful passes with Green tossing with remarkable accuracy to Jones and Dutton Beatson a touchdown was chalked up.
