

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolinas

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, OCT. 2, 1939

Henderson County Fall Festival, Oct. 4, 5

Hendersonville, Oct. 2.—Hendersonville and Henderson county will "go native" Wednesday and Thursday, October 4-5, for the Fall Festival which is being staged jointly by more than 35 organizations and groups for the entertainment of local people and visitors.

Business people will deck their employees in costumes reminiscent of previous days and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes and for the men growing the best whiskers.

A parade of animal drawn vehicles Wednesday at 11 a. m., will open the celebration. Visitors will be shown points of interest in a motorcade at 2 p. m., and mountain singers and dancers will entertain at a program of folk music and dancing at 7:30 p. m.

A livestock show and parade, a Harvest Pageant and old fashioned Barn Dancing will highlight Thursday's activities. Miss Henderson county will be selected and crowned at the Barn Dance at the city gymnasium.

A county fair and display of agricultural products, a flower show and a museum of antique and interesting objects connected with the county's history will be open from Tuesday thru Friday.

METHODIST WOMEN

The Woman's Missionary society of the Tryon Methodist church will meet on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. R. C. Fitzpatrick.

Two In Polk Arrested On Liquor Counts

Charlie Lockhart and Eliza Jane Johnson, of Polk county, were arrested yesterday by alcohol tax unit investigators and lodged in the Buncombe county jail on charges of violating the liquor laws. Lockhart was in jail today in default of $1,000 bond and the woman was free under bond of $100 for her appearance in federal district court here in Nov. They were given hearings before United States Commissioner Eugene Taylor.

The officers found 10 gallons of liquor and a number of 10-gallon kegs in the yard of the Lockhart home. The liquor was being transferred from a keg to jars, the agents said. The officers also seized two automobiles in the yard of the Lockhart home, which is near Tryon.—Asheville Citizen.

Kiwanis Tuesday

Tom Costa will be in charge of the Tryon Kiwanis club program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. A feature of the meeting will be a report from the Carolinas district convention by President Hoyt O. Prince.

CIRCLE MEETS TONIGHT

The Mollie Morris Circle will meet tonight at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Marvin Brendall. Miss Minnie Lee Garrison and Mrs. Morgan Morris will have charge of the program. An auction sale will follow the program to raise money for expenses of the society.