Bowling Results

Results at the bowling alley last week were excellent, with a new record for the season. In the men's duck pin class Cephus Owens holds the weekly high score and new record for this season with 191 pins. In the men's ten pin class Rudy Seitz holds the high score for the week and a new record for the season with 229 pins.

In the ladies' duck pin, Miss Mary Lucy Betts holds high score for the week with 127 pins. This was made just after Miss Nell Hilton rolled 121 pins on Saturday afternoon. Close but good competition and excellent scores for the ladies so early in the season. However, Miss Jessie Byers still holds the season's record with 140 pins. Miss Clara Edwards holds high and the record for ladies' ten pins with 153.

Match Tuesday night, 7 p. m., between the Adams-Millis and "the Cops". Line up in Tuesday's Bulletin.

Fined $20 For Selling Game Fish Here

Lionel King, colored, was fined $20 on Saturday in the court of Justice of the Peace, Giles W. Pearson, for selling game fish, (black bass), in Tryon. The fish were caught in Lake Lanier, it is said. Special Game Warden McLean who prosecuted the case, states that it is a serious offense to sell any game fish or game birds and that violaters will be prosecuted. The maximum fine for this offense in South Carolina, he stated, is $1,000.

Farthing Takes Over McNeely's Store

Announcement is made in today's Bulletin of the change of the operation of McNeely's Store in Tryon. Ralph L. Farthing of Spartanburg and formerly of Boone, N. C., has taken over the operation and personal management of the store, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McNeely are retiring from active participation in the business on account of Mr. McNeely's health which forced him from the business nearly two years ago.

Mr. Farthing has been in the grocery business for seven years, and was for a number of years with the A&P stores. He is married and has one child, Joyce, two years old. They will make their home in Tryon.
