

Mrs. C. E. Guthe, who accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. McDonald to Tryon from Detroit, will return to her home in Ann Arbor, Mich., on Saturday.

Mrs. Jefferson Coe and daughter, Miss Sallie Coe, of Worcester, Mass., are expected on Sunday to spend the winter in Tryon and will occupy the Gray's Blue Door cottage on Melrose Circle.

Miss Virginia Danforth, Miss Mary Foster Pitney, and Miss Hester Bartol, all of New York, who will be bridesmaids in the Erskine-Bartol wedding next week, will arrive in Tryon today and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Erskine.

Among the parties given in honor of Miss Carolyn Erskine, bride-elect of October 19th, was a tea given on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Baxter Haynes, and a luncheon on Thursday at Auberge given by Mrs. Homer Ellertson.

George Webster and Dan Walker arrived Thursday from Neenah, Wisconsin, with five of the Mahler horses. Mr. and Mrs. Mahler are expected first week in November.

Mrs. E. R. Morgan of Bloomington, Ill., is visiting her nephew, Dudley Smith.

How about your FEET? Are they comfortable? If not maybe it's a thin sole or worn heel. Let us solve your shoe problems.
