Chief Petty Officer Called Back Into Active Service

Loyd B. Panther, retired Chief Petty Officer, U. S. N., has been ordered to active duty aboard the destroyer U. S. Kane. Officer Panther served aboard this ship for over eight years prior to his retirement from active duty in 1930. He entered service in January 1914 and served through the World War aboard U. S. Battleship Delaware, with the British Grand Fleet, and did convoy duty during the war.

In the Near East in 1921-22 Panther served under Captain Rufus Zogbaum, U. S. N., retired, who is now living in Tryon.

Mr. Panther has made his home in this section since retirement, engaged in various activities. He will report for duty at Philadelphia on Monday. Mrs. Panther will remain at home in Lynn, N. C.

The Navy Department is calling many of the younger men from retirement, and to active service again.

Swannanoa, Oct. 13.—Swannanoa finally got started in the second period here today and pushed the Tryon-Saluda eleven all over the field to chalk up a 32-0 victory.

The home outfit scored once in the second period, and twice in each of the last two quarters. The first three touchdowns resulted from steady drives with Vick netting one of the scores and Coggins the other two. Then Davidson ran back an intercepted pass to the Tryon 10 and on the next play scored. A pass from J. Penley to Bennett was good for 35 yards and the fifth touchdown.—Asheville Citizen.
