

Mrs. C. J. Schoff

Mrs. C. J. Schoff, 77, passed away Friday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock following a stroke seven weeks ago. Private funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at the McFarland Funeral Home. Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln will officiate. The pallbearers will be W. P. Jackson, C. M. Howes, R. H. Brady, Robert Limbert and Dr. J. E. Derby. Interment in Tryon cemetery.

Mrs. Schoff was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and later moved to Michigan, coming to Tryon about 15 years ago to make her home. Mrs. Schoff is survived by one son and two daughters, H. R. Schoff of Cadillac, Mich., Mrs. Frank Bowen of Cadillac and Miss Gertrude Schoff of Tryon and they all three were here when the end came.

John David McGeachy is home for the weekend from Davidson college.

Brevard Rector Will Serve At Saluda Church

The Rev. Harry Perry, rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church of Brevard, has been appointed by Bishop R. E. Gribbin to take charge of the Church of the Transfiguration at Saluda. Mr. Perry will assume his new duties in addition to continuation of his rectorship of the St. Philip's church.

Mr. Perry states that he and family will remain in Brevard for the present, but that they will probably move later to Saluda, where the church has a rectory.—Transylvania Times.

Miss Ruth Manville has returned from a visit in New York.

J. O. Carson of Sewickley, Pa., is visiting his mother, Mrs. M. O. Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartol, Sr., of New York have arrived at the Auberge and will be here until after the Erskine-Bartol wedding.

Expert Upholstering Rewebbing -- Tying Springs

A full sample line of upholstery material on display. A new shipment of unpainted furniture received this week. Reasonably Priced.

Visit Our Modern Furniture Department

The Ballenger-Jackson Co.

TRYON, North Carolina