Hit-Run Victim Still Remains Unconscious

Tobe Metcalfe, Landrum man who was critically injured late Saturday afternoon when hit by a car on the Asheville-Spartanburg highway near the state line here, remained in an unconscious condition at St. Luke's hospital today.

According to hospital attaches, little, if any hope is held for the victim's recovery. He sustained numerous fractures, including a crushed skull and deep lacerations about the face.

Sidney Mull, 31-year-old white man of Los Angeles, Calif., and Columbus, surrendered to authorities here several hours after the accident, admitting being the driver of the car which figured in the mishap. He was turned over to the South Carolina law officials who aided in investigating the affair and is being held in the Greer, S. C., jail pending the outcome of Metcalfe's injuries.

Oldest Citizen of Landrum Passes

Landrum, Oct. 15.—Harrison D. Culbreth, 91, retired farmer who was Landrum's oldest citizen, died at his home here at 10 o'clock this morning following an illness of three weeks.

Mr. Culbreth was a native of North Carolina, but for the past 35 years had made his home in Landrum. He was a member of the First Baptist church of Landrum.

Survivors include three sons, W.
