Large Crowd Sees Movies Of Tryon and Camp

A motion picture view of Lake Lanier and the Boy Scout camp from an airplane were among the many new scenes in the new colored motion pictures of the local camp life and activities shown by Scout Executive R. M. Schiele at the Parish House Monday evening to a large crowd of Scouts and visitors attending the first fall session of the Polk county Boy Scout Court of Honor.

The chairman, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, presided over the Court and the following men served on the court with him: Scout Executive R. M. Schiele, Manager K. A. Bowen of the Duke Power Co., Rev. David M. McGeachy, Lawrence Mazzanovich, the artist, Major W. A. Schilletter, Council Vice-President Nelson Jackson, Jr., Coach M. B. Caldwell, Rev. B. G. Henry, and Acting Postmaster, G. I. Henderson.

Two Tryon boys, Jimmy Jackson and Bill Derby, passed their final tests for the Eagle rank and at the next Court of Honor on November 20th, they will be joined by Lock McGeachy and George Cooksey who also have passed their Eagle tests, and the four Scouts will be presented at the same time for their Eagle awards.

The meeting opened with prayer by Rev. B. G. Henry followed with the repeating of the Scout Oath.

Announcements were made and then the work of the Court went forward as follows:

Tenderfoot Rank: Edwin Cromer, Bobby Bishop, Nathan Moore, Tom Cooksey and Brock Henry,
