CURB REPORTER

The Bulletin is used for many purposes such as to find lost articles, give information about entertainments, bargains at the stores and general announcements. Several days ago Major W. A. Schilleter wanted to know whether the time of the services at the Presbyterian church had been changed from 8 o'clock to 7:30. Somebody suggested, "Look in Saturday's Bulletin, it carries announcements from all the churches." Sure enough the Bulletin gave the new time. Little Billy Schilleter was in the room at the time. That night the Schilleter's clock stopped and when the family awoke the next morning and some one asked what time it was, Billy said, "Why don't you look in the Bulletin . . . three column picture of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartol, Jr., nee Carol Erskine, taken on board the ship bound for Bermuda, was published in Monday's Asheville Citizen . . . Also noticed in yesterday's Citizen that Carroll Rogers, Jr., of Burnsville was one of the honorary pallbearers at the funeral of Dr. Weilage, the noted international dentist who died at Burnsville. While a dental officer in the World War his sweetheart was in Holland and she wrote President Wilson to please make arrangements for her to marry the doctor; he did. The letter was so interesting that it was reproduced in many leading newspapers . . . .

Mrs. J. H. Metcalf

Mrs. Nora Rhodes Fisher Metcalf, 63, widow of the late J. H. Metcalf of Tryon, died this morning about 3:30 o'clock in Gastonia. Mrs. Metcalf was a native of Polk County and lived in Tryon for many years, and had large family connections throughout this section.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday at 2:30 at the Lynn Baptist church with the Rev. B. G. Henry, officiating. Nephews will serve as pallbearers. The honorary pallbearers will be C. M. Howes, Jno. A. Arledge, W. Y. Wilkins, W. C. Ward, W. D. Hines, B. L. Ballenger, Julian Hester, F. P. Bacon.

Mrs Metcalf is survived by the following children: Claude Fisher of Asheville, Jack Fisher, Mrs. Ralph Williams and Mrs. Robert Stowe of Gastonia. Also one sister, Mrs. Roxie Rhodes Fisher, of Lynn and one brother, Hilliard C. Rhodes, of Anderson, S. C.
