Somerset, Bermuda.

Dear Mr. Vining:

I have just had a letter from Tryon which contained some clippings from the Bulletin, one of them to the effect that the Walter Hills were marooned in Bermuda, unable to get a ship back. I don't know when this was published, but I would very much like to know where you got your information as it is just 100% incorrect! The Walter Hills were not marooned nor has anyone else been unable to get passage back to the States for more than a few days.

You are probably unaware how much damage your statement could do, but I wish you would make some amends for it. Bermuda is still as lovely and peaceful as ever and a delightful spot to spend a vacation. There is no food shortage and visitors are desired as usual. We now have the "Nieuw Amsterdam," the Holland-America line flagships, running down here once a week so that passage is assured.

In other words, Bermuda is most anxious to welcome visitors and there is no reason why people cannot have just as pleasant a time here as usual. (Incidentally,

District Meeting

Tomorrow morning, Tuesday, at 10:30 at the Church of the Holy Cross, the District Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held. Bishop Gribbin and the Diocesan President of the Auxiliary, will be here. Special speakers will tell of the work of the church throughout the Diocese.

Every one interested is invited to attend, and to meet afterwards neighbors in the church's activities, at 1 o'clock at a luncheon to be provided by the Woman's Auxiliary and served by the members of St. Agnes Guild.

Rotary Inter-City Meeting At Sunnydale Thursday

Tryon and Hendersonville Rotary clubs will hold an Inter-City meeting on Thursday at 7:15 at Sunnydale Log Cabin. Inter-City chairman Nelson Jackson, Jr., will be in charge of the program which will include several noted entertainers, among them Maury Pearson, Mrs. Frank Crews and an accompanist of Spartanburg, Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Flynn and W. P. Jackson of Tryon. Also if the projector arrives some interesting movies will be shown by Samuel A. Bingham. This will be a "ladies night" entertainment and the Rotarians and Rotary Anns of Tryon and Hendersonville will just about fill Sunnydale to capacity.

KIWANIS TUESDAY

J. N. Jackson will be responsible for the Tryon Kiwanis program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon.
