

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolinas

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCT. 31, 1939

Flower Shop Opens Here Wednesday

The Tryon Flower Shop which had a successful season last year in the Marshall building, will re-open for the second season on Wednesday morning, November 1, according to announcement today by Joe K. Anderson. The flower shop last year carried a large line of potted plants and cut flowers for all occasions. Mrs. George Dewey Cooksey is associated with Mr. Anderson in the operation of the flower shop. The firm did a big business last year especially during holidays, anniversaries, etc.

Tryon Book & Paper Shop Ten Years Old November 1

The Tryon Book & Paper Shop opens for its eleventh season on Wednesday, November 1st, in the Bookshop building. As usual it will offer a carefully selected stock of books for sale and for rent, prints, papers, stationery, Christmas wrappings and cards, and various items of an unusual nature. This year, Mrs. John Wilson of Hallowell, Maine, will be associated with the Shop. Mrs. Wilson is a sister of Mrs. John Washburn.

The Tryon Book & Paper Shop was first opened on November 1, 1929, by Miss Helen Stearns. Miss Genevieve Washburn and John L. Washburn. It was operated continuously during the fall, winter and spring seasons since that date. Although there have been several changes in the ownership. After the first year, Miss Stearns resigned from the partnership and in the

Continued on Back Page

To Conduct Cooking School Here

Miss Florence Rogers

The free three day cooking school to be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons on November 6, 7, and 8, (next week), beginning at 2:30 each afternoon at the Tryon school auditorium, will be conducted by Miss Florence Rogers, who is billed by headquarters as an "university graduate in Home Economics, special representative of the Spry Research Kitchen in Cambridge, Mass., lecturer and writer on food subjects and recognized authority in the food world.

"This lecturer is a superb cook. In the course of her demonstration

Continued on Back Page