

"PRATTLINGS" . . . . Ghosts and goblins reigned supreme at the Hallowe'en party Saturday night. Jimmy Jackson was the chief ghost and was awarded first prize in the high school division for his costume which consisted of a sheet and a mask. Honorable mention was given to Claudia Helms and to Jean Derby. In the grammar grade contest Joe Chapman of Spartanburg, won with a "Popeye" costume. Honorable mention was awarded to Rubv Hayes and Edna Faye Morgan. Bobby Williams was the winner in the primary department. In the corn flake eating contest Harrison Bridgeman and Floyd Phillips of the Fifth grade won. Royal Ford also of the Fifth grade won the balloon and apple bobbing contests. Bill Coon (Eighth grade, won the milk drinking contest for the second year . . . . When the Tryon football team went to Canton an outstanding thing was the good sportsmanship shown by Canton players. So far this year the Tryon team has won three games and lost three. This Friday is an open date and then the Valley Springs team comes to Tryon on the tenth.

Joseph J. Payson has returned to New York where he represents the Southern Mercerizing Co., of Tryon.
