Cooking School Monday

Only two days to wait for the opening session of the Cooking School, with Miss Florence Rogers, at Tryon School Auditorium, on Monday at 2:30 p. m. Other classes will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday at the same time.

At each session of the school, a printed folder containing all the recipes to be prepared by Miss Rogers will be presented to every person in the audience. A complete set of these miniature cook-books can be had by all our readers just by attending the cooking school.

Every woman is given an opportunity to participate in the distribution of the many gifts to be awarded daily.

In addition to the foods prepared and the other attractive and worthwhile gifts, baskets of well-known groceries and household supplies will be awarded each day.

Miss Rogers, noted Lecturer and Home Economist of the Spry Research Kitchens, will demonstrate and explain novel, time-saving, and thrifty methods of cookery. Here is an opportunity for women of this section to learn new ideas and tested recipes for main dishes and desserts that are wholesome, delicious and economical.

"Cooking With Confidence" is the title Miss Rogers has taken for her current series. She says that any woman can duplicate her results by following the methods and tested recipes which she uses.

The attractive Frigidaire range and other appliances which Miss Rogers will use, have been furnished through the courtesy of Avant Electric Company.

School Boy Patrol Starts Monday

On Monday morning the newly formed school boy patrol will take over its duties. Fifty-eight boys volunteered for the patrol. Out of this number thirty-two were chosen and divided into two patrols. These patrols will alternate, being on duty a week at a time.

There are few small towns that are able to have a school boy patrol. Each patrol has a captain and a lieutenant appointed by Mr. Schilleter. It is the duty of each captain to appoint his own sergeant. The Rotary club has given the money for the belts and badges the boys will be equipped with. The boys in the patrol are:

Patrol 1—Harold Taylor, captain; George Cooksey, lieutenant; Burrell Byers, sergeant; William Graham, Tom Melton, Spurgeon Arledge, Paul Jones, Jimmy Baker, Jimmy Edney, Robert Andrews, Ellis Kuykendall, Brock Henry, Julius Earle Brock, Marion Edwards, Ed Beatson.

KIWANIS TUESDAY

Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln will be in charge of the Tryon Kiwanis program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. The guest speaker will be Miss Helen Roberts who will discuss our relations with the American Indians.
