CURB REPORTER

The Ballenger - Jackson Company has created a lot of interest with the offer of a free coat to the person guessing the closest to the number of winning football teams this weekend . . . Have you ever volunteered your services to a civic cause without pay and then not have it appreciated or else met with indifference? There are a lot of people doing things for us all the time just for the sake of doing it as a needed thing without thought of credit. Some plant flowers, pick up paper, give money, say a good word, etc. The world is a grand place, just full of good sports. School football teams work without pay, in fact give more of their thought, their time and their efforts coupled with a spirit to play their best for the community they represent than do some business men who profit by progress. The Tryon-Saluda players will give their last home game of the season on Friday at 3 o'clock at Harmon Field. They are boys who can take it. They lost every game last year, but played right on. This year, so far, they have broken even, winning three and losing three. But win or lose they play their best. Their spirit of teamwork and cooperation is good for them and for the community. Your attendance will be an inspiration to you and to them. Ladies, if you have never seen a football
