

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolina

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-25

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOV. 17, 1939

Dr. Mary F. Burts To Speak In Tryon

Dr. Mary F. Burts, prominent child welfare official of Spartanburg will address the Tryon Parent-Teacher association on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the school auditorium. The public is invited to hear her. Dr. Burts received her Philosophy degree from New York University. She is a director of the Saluda Baby hospital and of the Spartanburg Recreation parks. She has been actively engaged in all phases of young people's work and her subject in Tryon on Monday will be "Enjoying Our Children."

Mary Lillian Taylor

Little Mary Lillian Taylor, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, died on Thursday afternoon after an illness of several days. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence with the pastor, the Rev. B. G. Henry, of the First Baptist church, officiating. The pallbearers Jack Ford, W. M. Ballew, Birch Arledge and N. L. Wilson.

Besides her parents the deceased is survived by one sister, Miss Lavinia Taylor, and two brothers, Harold and Seth Taylor.

Supreme Court Justice Pierce Butler died Thursday morning after a three months' illness. Byrnes and Stacy of South and North Carolina are mentioned as successors.

Tryon-Saluda Plays Waynesville Today

The Tryon-Saluda football team tackles their strongest opponents tonight at 7:30 on the Waynesville high school field. The local team is eager to give the stronger Waynesville eleven a good battle, and there is always the chance of winning. So far Tryon-Saluda has won four games and lost three. Around 50 Tryon people attended the Canton-Tryon-Saluda game, but Waynesville is farther away and as it is, the local crowd is expected to be smaller.

Successful Party

The Parent - Teacher annual bridge-games party was a successful event on Wednesday evening at the Parish House when approximately $44 was raised to help carry on the work of the organization this year. Many attractive prizes were given to the high scorers at each table. The Parish Hall was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Delicious refreshments were served following the games. The chairmen in charge of the event were Mrs. B. G. Henry and Miss Elisabeth Watson of the Ways and Means and of the Social committee Mrs. W. A. Schilleter and Mrs. R. H. Millikin.

Forest fires from Chimney Rock section and in the Big Tree area of Buncombe county are spreading. Hundreds of men fighting the flames. Rain needed badly.