

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolina

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOV. 22, 1939

CURB REPORTER

The Chamber of Commerce needs a hat tree, small screen, a filing box for letters, booklets, etc. Notify Mrs. W. R. Condict if you have any of these to spare The Ballenger-Jackson Co. is conducting another football guessing contest. This time a first prize is offered the ladies separately from the men's first prize. Therefore, one woman is certain to win even if all the men turn in better guesses The Garden club and Railroad are putting out 1,000 red tulip bulbs in the little park between the station and street The other day when Hnton Thompson and Frank Richardson had to draw for the second and third prize in the football gessing contest. Second prize was a hat and third prize a pair of pajamas. Hinton was perplexed. He didn't wear a hat or s'leep in pajamas. The drawers had lots of fun. Hinton drew second place and got the hat. So he will continue to sleep in a night shirt. Frank received the third prize, pajamas Do you want to see Trade street decorated aga'n this year for Christmas holidays? Charlie Lvneh and Tom Costa are making plans for an even greater decoration if the necessary funds can be raised. Through the cooperation of the Town of Tryon and local civic organizations and individuals Trade

---Continued on Back Page---

Social Council Met On Tuesday

At a meeting of the Council of Social Agencies held in Missildine's Hall Tuesday at 4:15 p. m., with Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln presiding, reports were received from the Helping Hand, the American Woman's Hospitals, the Department of Public Welfare, the Department of Public Health, the 4-H club work, and the American Red Cross. Rev. W. P. Jackson was united by unanimous vote to become a member of the Council and in case of acceptance, to be chairman of a committee on recreation. It was announced that Mrs. Ina Tyler, Superintendent of Public Welfare was preparing a master list of persons eligible to receive Christmas baskets. Organizations and individuals contemplating the giving of Christmas baskets are urged to consult with her by personal interviews at the office of the Department in Columbus or by telephone, 3011-M.

Property Transfers

Miss Louise Averill has bought the Thompson house on Grady avenue from Senator F. P. Bacon.

Miss Ruth C. Woodley and Miss Elisabeth Stanwood have purchased the Lit Shehan place, near the property of Mrs. Will Gaines on Howard Gap Road.

G. F. Gilchrist has purchased a tract of land from B. L. Ballenger near property of J. R. Trowbridge in the Hunting Country.