Mrs. Maggie McClure

Mrs. Maggie McClure, 63, widow of Furman McClure of Tryon, died during her sleep sometime Saturday night.

Mrs. McClure, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Hill, in the Green River section of Polk County, was found dead in bed by members of the household early Sunday morning.

Mrs. McClure is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Sallie Hill, Mill Spring, route 3; one sister, Miss Lettie Foster of Greer; five half-brothers and one half-sister.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 3 p. m. at the Fairview Baptist church, two miles west of Landrum, with the pastor, the Rev. Tom Reid and the Rev. D. M. McGeachy of Tryon officiating.

Former County Commissioner Of Rutherford Dies

Rutherfordton, N. C. Nov. 26.—Funeral services for J. Hulon Hill, 61, will be held at the First Baptist church of Spindale Monday at 3 p. m. Burial will follow in Rutherfordton cemetery. He died in the Presbyterian hospital, Charlotte, at 5 o'clock this morning, following an extended illness. He was formerly county commissioner of Rutherford, mail carrier on route two from here many years and was a deacon of the church.

War is no joke, but Russia is accusing Finland of attacking her. Says four Russian soldiers have been killed.

At The Christmas Bazaar, December 6

All the features which have proved so popular at past Christmas Bazaars of the St. Agnes Guild, and some added attractions, are promised for this year's Bazaar to be held Wednesday, December 6, at the Parish House.

Christmas shoppers will find many unusual articles, and many practical ones on the various tables that are being prepared by the ladies of the Guild.

All sorts of silvered flowers, decorative leaves, berries, and pine cones, suitable for table adornment or for use in decorating the home, will be offered for sale.

There will be a grab bag for adults as well as children; and the table of White Elephants—but not white elephants to you, will provide the usual wide diversity of articles suitable for gifts—make the very thing you have been looking for for years.

And fancy gifts—there will be all kinds of things, not to mention an ingenious folding ironing board, several of them, that is absolutely indispensable for traveling.

Something very new will be the cotton basket, a sensation at a Georgia Bazaar. It's a miniature cotton picking basket, Georgia style, filled with towels, wash cloths, etc.

Paper in many practicable forms, Place mats and decorated paper for gift wrapping—will be for sale at a separate table.

Of course, the Food Table—can-
