First Annual Commencement At Religious Training School

Seventy-four certificates of attendance and study were given out by Dean D. M. McGeachy assisted by the Rev. Chas. L. McGavern, Registrar, and the Rev. B. G. Henry, host of the Interdenominational Religious Training School, Tuesday night at its tenth and closing session of intensive teaching and training. These certificates were given to those who had attended seven out of the ten sessions, including the discussion classes. Many more, who had attended the lectures of the Rev. Chas. G. Sewall and Dr. Hunter, of Converse college, were in attendance Tuesday night, filling the auditorium of the First Baptist church where the sessions have been held. Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln made a short but eloquent speech, paying tribute to the faculty of the school for its contribution of learning and time and effort in organization and conducting the school and Dr. George Farrand Taylor announced that plans were under way to organize the school for its second year next autumn. He called for written suggestions from those attending as to how the school could be improved and asked that these be mailed to him.

The school has decided to publish, in mimeograph form, the lectures of the Old Testament, given by Dr. Sewall. An edition of 100 copies will be made; seventy of these have been subscribed for; others interested in obtaining a copy of these scholarly and interesting lectures may do so by com-
