CURB REPORTER

Russia rushed to finish Finland but her tanks began to sink before they could get to Helsinki and a lot of us will learn something about Finland. The papers and magazines will be full of stories, maps and pictures. Nearly the whole world admires the spirit of Finland and can't see any reason why big Russia had to jump on Finland. Phil Windsor said it is hard to tell which is the aggressor. For instance, he says who ever heard of a rabbit attacking a dog. Probably the dog doesn't like the twitching of a rabbit's face . . . . Tryon Girl Scouts are offering to repair and remodel old toys for distribution to poor children. Anyone having discarded toys for this purpose may notify the Girl Scout leaders Miss Elizabeth Kerhulas, Miss Lois Avant or Miss Elisabeth Watson. Grand weather we are having . . . . The Tryon Kiwanis club raised over $30 at their meeting on Tuesday with which to buy Christmas baskets of food and fruit and give some cheer to a few needy families in the county . . . . C. J. Lynch is receiving contributions to the Christmas tree lighting fund. It will cost around $40 just to pay the electricity to light the trees until after Christmas . . . .

Close Scores Made In Basketball

The local Adams-Millis basketball teams played two interesting games on Tuesday night at the Tryon school gymnasium. The girls' game was lost to the Gray Hosiery Mill of Hendersonville by a 34-39 score. The boys lost their game to the fast Spindale team by a score of 29-31.

Colored Cooks, Maids To Have School

The Duke Power Co. will hold a school of small electrical appliances for colored cooks and maids on Thursday, night at 7:30, at the office on Trade street. All colored cooks and maids are invited to attend this free school which will offer instruction in the proper use of small electrical appliances. Mrs. Kathleen Moore, home economist will conduct the school.

Concert Thursday

The usual Thursday morning concert will be held at Tryon Theatre on December 7th, at 11 o'clock.

Annual Meeting of Church Tonight

The annual meeting and supper of the Erskine Memorial Congregational church will be held tonight at 6:45 at Sunnydale. Reports and election of officers. Special music.
