Christmas Decoration Fund Continues To Grow

More volunteered contributions are coming in to pay for the cost of putting up the Christmas trees on Trade street. The list now includes Mrs. H. H. Parmelee, J. C. Kimberly, Carroll Rogers, Julian Calhoun, Mrs. Robert Limbert, Rev. Charles G. Sewall, Mrs. C. M. Gottfried, B. Steadman, Mrs. M. O. Kelly, Mrs. Raymond Dodge, Mrs. DuBoise Knight, Senator F. P. Bacon, Edgar C. Rowe, Sam Abernathy, J. A. Wilson, Harry Allen, Fred J. McDona'd, Mrs. James H. Rion, George A. Cathey, Tryon Bank & Trust Co., John Washburn, George Jenks, A. H. Green, P. G. Morris, J. R. Trowbridge, Dr. C. C. Curtis, A&P, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, Mrs. W. C. White, Mrs. Rachel Slocumb, Miss Agnes Campbell, Tryon Motor Co.

If you think it a good thing to decorate the street the way it is being done and would care to contribute something, please give your contribution to the chairman, C. J. Lynch or Tom Costa or send to the Bulletin office. Every little bit helps. And the fact that you are interested enough to give something toward the work is encouraging to the people who are willing to take the initiative and run all the risks.

Airplane Pictures at Kiwanis

County Agent J. A. Wilson will show aerial maps of Polk county, taken from an airplane, at the Kiwanis club meeting on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. The program will be in charge of P. L. Barnette.

William Dimsdale

William Nesbitt Dimsdale, 77, of Mill Spring, died Sunday night at the hospital in Tryon. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Cooper Gap Baptist church with the Rev. Mr. Crawford and the Rev. Mr. Huntley officiating. The deceased is survived by an adopted son, Furman Jackson, with whom he lived, also two brothers, J. P. and J. C. Dimsdale, of Mill Spring section and a sister, Miss Dora Dimsdale, of Rutherfordton.

Prize for Best Window

President K. A. Bowen of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce stated this morning that the Chamber of Commerce would offer a small attractive prize to the merchant having the best window display during the holidays. The judges will be announced later. Mr. Bowen stated that the Chamber of Commerce was interested in promoting more trade with the home merchants and that the window display contest would help attract the attention of the buying public to the high quality merchandise on sale at Tryon stores.

Hoots Replaces Seitz As District Forester

R. J. Seitz, U. S. District Forester, who has made his headquarters in Tryon for several months, has been promoted to the Gastonia office to serve Gaston and Lincoln counties. W. R. Hoots, district conservationist, will succeed Mr. Seitz here. Mr. and Mrs. Seitz will move about the 16th of this month.
