Bowlers To Meet At Country Club

The Tryon Young Men's Association will meet on Wednesday night at 7 o'clock at the Tryon Country club house to discuss plans for the bowling season. "Anyone interested in bowling is invited to attend the meeting," said Bowler McLean today.

Post Office to Open All Day Saturdays

Postmaster W. H. Stearns stated today that the Tryon Post Office would be open all day on the remaining three Saturdays of this year, December 16th, 23rd, 30th.

Racks for Greens

Chief Hague Kiser has erected stands on Oak street under the stairway of M'ssildine's Pharmacy for the mountain people to display their Christmas greens. This eliminates the necessity of cluttering up the busy sidewalks and prevents people from stepping on them and crushing the edges. Then, too, the greens will be more sanitary, free of spit, etc.

Masonic Officers Elected

The Jeff L. Nelson Masonic Lodge elected the following officers on Monday night: R. S. Jackson, Worshipful Master; G. L. Pace, Senior Warden; W. E. Kilpin, Junior Warden; R. A. Leonard, secretary; J. B. Hester, treasurer.

Polk County Favors Cotton Quotas

In the referendum on marketing quotas for next year, Polk county's cotton farmers voted 210 for quotas and 85 against, according to a news dispatch from Raleigh. The State as a whole voted 49,542 for quotas and 5,513 against.

Girl Scouts to Hold Court of Awards

The Tryon Girl Scouts will hold their first Court of Awards of the fall on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Tryon school auditorium. A large number of girls are candidates for the tenderfoot, second class and first class ranks, and there will be a number of applicants for merit badge promotions. The public is invited to attend.

Tips on Mail Cards

Postmaster W. H. Stearns says that if patrons who mail a lot of Christmas cards at one time, would tie a string around them or slip a rubber band over them and hand the cards in at the window instead of putting them through the chute that it would help speed up the delivery of the cards. When the cards are put through the hole they have to be gathered up and straightened for mailing. When stacked neatly they have that extra work.
