CURB REPORTER

The new press is working. Monte Dedman, the foreman, is watching it perform and smiles with great satisfaction; but the greatest pleasure is given to Here 'N' Yonder Johnson, for to him has been falling the job of keeping the old press working. Leon Green, who has been feeding the old press by hand says the new one is the cutest thing he ever saw Thanks to George Cathey, he brought us a beautiful begonia plant as a gift from our friend, Patterson, the florist, at Shelby, N. C. Patterson's nursery and flower gardens are among the most progressive in south and they ship flowers wholesale from Ohio to Florida R. R. Jackson, the rector, who installed the Bulletin press, likes Tryon so well he would like to live here Isn't this grand spring weather? . . . A number of beautiful trees have been decorated for Christmas in the yards of homes along Markham Road, Melrose avenue, Saluda highway, Lynn road, Godshaw Hill . . . If you know of any dances, parties, program of general interest please notify the Bulletin for its calendar of events Jimmy Livingston's orchestra at Sunnydale last Friday gave the local dancers a real treat The German crew blew up their ship, the Graf Spree,

Dividends for Christmas

The Tryon Federal Savings & Loan Association has made its annual dividend payments to 123 investors who shared in dividends amounting to $3,377.92. Of that amount $246.86 was returned to add to their thrift savings account. In addition to giving a lot of Christmas money to people in this section, the local association has furnished a safe place for the investment of savings with insurance protection up to $5,000. The officers of the local association are F. P. Bacon, president; W. S. Green, vice-president; M. R. McCown, secretary - treasurer; Julian B. Hester, Walter C. Hill, directors.

Kiwanis Program Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis club will have its annual toy program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. The program will be in charge of K. A. Bowen. Each member will bring toys for presentation to other members accompanied by a lot of fun. Afterwards the toys will be put in the Kiwanis cheer baskets going to needy families with little children.

SANTA CLAUS COMING

Santa Claus in his regular costume will come to Tryon for a few minutes on Saturday and parade on Trade street for the benefit of all the children who wish to see him. Whether he will ride in an automobile, horseback or carriage is not known at present. Just a simple statement came over the wire announcing that he would be in Tryon on Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock.
