

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolinas

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, DEC. 28, 1939

CURB REPORTER

The big snow storm sweeping the country missed Tryon and vicinity this week. The temperature dropped to 35 below in Wake-no, N. Y. . . . . The Finns are pushing the Russians back in two places on the battle line. The Finns are using some soldiers dressed in white clothes who skate over the frozen lakes or glide on skis. They are almost invisible and surprise the enemy with their lightning attacks . . . . . Clemson's football team had to practice during icy weather on their arrival at Dallas, Texas, to play Boston college in the Cotton Bowl . . . . . 8,000 people die in an earthquake in Turkey . . . . . France and England are buying war supplies from the United States . . . . . Finland is getting relief from contributors all over the world. President Hoover heads the relief solicitors in the United States . . . . . Vice-President Garner is receiving support for his nomination for President on the Democratic ticket . . . . . President Roosevelt has appointed Myron C. Taylor as representative to the Catholic Pope at Rome to work for peace. Roosevelt also calls a conference of religious leaders of several denominations and asks for cooperation on working for world peace.

Warrington Preston At Presbyterian Church

Warrington Preston, student at Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., will preach on Sunday evening at 7:30 at the Tryon Presbyterian church. He will preach a New Year's sermon especially for the young people. Mr. Preston is a graduate of Tryon high school and attended Erskine college before going to the seminary. He is spending the holidays here with his brother, Dr. John Z. Preston, and sister, Miss Edith Preston.

Buy Berry Place

Mr. R. McCown and J. T. Arledge have purchased the property on Grady avenue of the late Admiral and Mrs. Berry, formerly occupied by Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McGeachy.

Costume Dance At Oak Hall Tonight

The annual holiday costume dance at Oak Hall will be held tonight with music furnished by Bill Davenport's orchestra. Attractive prizes have been secured for the winners of the costumes.

Hendersonville, Dec. 27.—A brisk sale of 1940 automobile license plates was reported at the Hendersonville branch of the Carolina Motor club Wednesday as Corporal Robert McNeil, of the State Highway Patrol, announced that no extension would be granted for use of old plates.

The 1939 licenses expire at midnight Sunday, Mr. McNeil said.