

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolinas

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, DEC. 29, 1939

CURB REPORTER

Russia is reported to have changed generals in her army fighting Finland . . . Earthquake victims in Turkey are estimated to number more than 50,000 . . . Jo Jo says the weather will be cloudy, but Saturday would be generally fair with no change in temperature . . . Some think this has been a quiet Christmas, but in addition to four or five dances, bridge parties, etc., there have been many smaller parties that have kept the young people on the go. Tryon is getting to be a mecca for Christmas vacationists . . . Please send the Bulletin news of your guests so that we can have a complete community journal, as far as possible . . .

M. Day Passes

James Madison Day, 74, died this morning at 5:30 at the home of his son, Leslie L. Day, on Walnut street. Interment in Easley, S. C. Time to be announced. The deceased is survived by two sons, Lee L. Day of Tryon and Emory Day, of Highlands, N. C., also eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Rear Admiral Julius Townsend, 58, commandant of the Fourth naval district with headquarters at Philadelphia, died today at the Brooklyn, N. Y., naval hospital.

Costume Dance At Oak Hall Big Event

The costume dance at Oak Hall hotel on Thursday evening was a colorful event. The hotel was attractively decorated with streamers, greens and balloons. Bill Davenport's orchestra furnished the music. Those in costume were led in a grand march by Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn. Prizes for best costume went to Miss Virginia Fowler dressed as an ice skater, and to Ben Fisher as an old mountaineer. The floor show was very interesting. Donald Wing delighted the guests with his entertaining solo dancing. Miss Fowler and her partner, Walter Newman, Ben Fisher and his partner, Miss Elizabeth Cox, responded to calls for performances. George Babbs, a 16-year-old singer of Spartanburg with several solos, and a local colored man, tap dancing also furnished entertainment.

Farmers Federation Meet Next Week

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 28.—More than 4,000 stockholders of the Farmers Federation will share in a 3% semi-annual dividend to be paid January 1st. This dividend, payable on both common and preferred shares, is the twelfth consecutive semi-annual payment made by the cooperative. It was declared at a meeting of the board of directors at the central office in Asheville on December 15th.

Common stock dividends are non-
-----Continued on Back Page-----