Rotary Hears of Junior Chamber of Commerce

James Ware of Charleston, West Virginia, son of Mrs. W. R. Condict, of Tryon, and vice-president of the Charleston Junior Chamber of Commerce gave an interesting outline of the organization functions and ideals of the Junior Chamber of Commerce throughout the United States, in an address before the members of the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnysdale. The program was in charge of Rotarian Fred Owens. Mr. Ware spoke of the rapid growth of the Junior organization which seeks to develop civic consciousness in young men from 21 to 36. The J. C.'s in his city are bringing about better city government, aiding the school athletics, bringing more trade to the city, giving it favorable adver-tsing, and at the same time having lots of fun and developing fellowship and friendship among the local and district members.
