

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolinas

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N C., TUESDAY, JAN. 9, 1940

Communications

John Foster's house burned down last Sunday morning on Stearns Route.

They were away from home when the house caught. Everything except what they had on got burnt up. They were at Columbus with John's sister when the house burnt down. They want anybody that will give them anything to leave it at Lynn with Mrs. Jack Foster. They will take fruit, clothing, dishes, money, pots, pans, quilts, sheets, pillows, or anything that anybody wants to give them. They can leave it with Mrs. Jack Foster at Lynn. Mrs. Jack Foster lives in the old store house.

Mrs. Viola Foster.

MEETING POSTPONED

The Mollie Morris Circle of the Tryon Methodist church has postponed its January meeting to the first Monday in February, at which time the Circle will meet with Miss Leila Wilson.

President Roosevelt at the District of Columbia Jackson Day dinner Monday night urged the party to hold to its independent voters because the good of the country should come first.

Finn's defeat another Russian army, killing thousands and capturing much equipment.

Italy and Hungary agree on mutual defense against any other power, meaning Russia and Germany.

Tryon Bank & Trust Co., will hold its annual stockholders meeting this afternoon.

Scouts To Hear Former "G-Man"

Gastonia, N. C., Jan. 9.—Announcement is being made by J. W. Atkins, chairman of the Arrangements Committee for the Annual Meeting and Banquet of the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America, which will be held here on Tuesday night, the 16th, that Melvin Purvis, former "G-Man", who will be the principal speaker at the meeting, will address a mass meeting of Boy Scouts from the Piedmont Council area at the high school auditorium on the afternoon of the 16th, at 4:30 o'clock. Scout Troops from Alexander, Burke, Caldwell, Catawba, Cleveland, Gaston, Iredell, Lincoln, McDowell, Polk, and Rutherford are being invited to the mass meeting on the afternoon of the 16th, as the meeting at night is for Scout and Cub leaders.

Melvin Purvis, a former agent of the F. B. I. is perhaps the best known of the "G-Men," having brought to an end, the notorious John Dellinger, "Baby Face" Nelson, and a host of other criminals. Mr. Purvis is now a newspaper publisher at Florence, S. C., and a speaker of national reputation.

Hunt Club Meets At Oak Hall On Wednesday

The Riding & Hunt club will hold its annual meeting on Wednesday night at 8:15 at Oak Hall hotel instead of at Sunnydale as previously announced.