

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolinas

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 10, 1940

Silver Beaver Award To Be Presented For Distinguished Service

W. K. Mauney of King Mountain, and H. Gilmer Winget, of Gastonia, will receive the Silver Beaver Award for distinguished service to boyhood for the year 1939 and presentation of these awards will be made at the annual meeting and banquet of the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America, on Tuesday night, January 16, at Gastonia. The Silver Beaver Award is a national recognition granted by the Boy Scouts of America upon the recommendation of the local Boy Scout Council, two such awards are allotted each year to the eleven counties of the Piedmont Council.

W. K. Mauney has been associated in the work of the Piedmont Council since 1924 and has served his local community and the council in various leadership capacities. He is now chairman of the Kings Mountain District which leads the eleven counties in the number of Scout Troops on a population basis, and is chairman of the Council Committee on Organization and Extension.

H. G. Winget has been associated in Scouting since 1928 and has an outstanding record in serving boyhood. He is a member of the Troop Committee of Troop 16, Gastonia, and has served the Gastonia Court of Honor for the past 12 years, serving as the Judge of the Court since 1933. He

Continued on Back Page

Hunt Club Meets Tonight At 8:15

The annual meeting of the Tryon Riding and Hunt Club will be held tonight at 8:15 at Oak Hall Hotel. President Carter P. Brown is eager for all members to be present for discussion of plans for the spring season.

Dr. Edsall to Address Medical Society

Dr. David L. Edsall, former dean of Harvard Medical school, will address the Thermal Belt Medical society at its meeting in Forest City on Thursday, January 18th at 7 p. m., according to an announcement by H. C. Thompson of Shelby, secretary of the association.

Basketball Tonight

The Adams-Millis boys and girls basketball teams will play Converse mill boys and girls teams tonight at the Tryon Gymnasium starting with the girls game at 7:15. The boys game will follow immediately. The contest between the teams tonight is expected to be close and the local teams lost last year by only one or two points.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The house heard its only negro member, Representative Mitchell (D., Ill.) hotly charge the Republican party today with "trying to buy back the negro vote" with the pending anti-lynching bill.