

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

$1.50 Year In the Carolinas

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 25, 1940

Baskerville to Speak Here on Tuesday

John C. Baskerville of the division of advertising of the State Department of Conservation and Development will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club meeting on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale Log Cabin. Rotarians, Members of the Chamber of Commerce, Town and County Officials and any others interested in knowing what the State of North Carolina is doing to advertise the resources of the state to the world, are invited to attend this meeting. Anyone interested should notify the secretary, Seth M. Vining, so that reservations may be made in time. The price of the meal is 75 cents. Mr. Baskerville will speak on Tuesday night at Marion and on Wednesday at a joint civic club meeting in Hendersonville. While in Tryon he will be the guest of Carroll P. Rogers.

Library History In Polk County News

A brief history of the Lanier Club, by Miss Helen H. Roberts, taken from Mrs. Morton's History of the Lanier club, is published in this week's Polk County News, and will be on sale at 5 cents a copy.

Ellis At Rotary

Rev. R. A. Ellis, pastor of the Landrum Baptist church, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale Log Cabin. The program will be in charge of John G. Landrum, Jr.

For Finland

At the request of Former Gov. Ehringhaus, I have accepted the chairmanship of Polk county in connection with the campaign to raise money for the Finnish Relief Fund. Governor Ehringhaus is state chairman for North Carolina in the carrying on of this meritorious undertaking, while Former President Herbert Hoover is national chairman. I feel sure that the good people of our county, who have watched with unbounded admiration the heroic struggle of the Finnish people to protect their homeland from destruction at the hands of a brutal and conscienceless aggressor, will give willingly and gladly, according to their means, in order to take part in this great movement which has as its object the sending of food and clothing to the destitute people of this brave little nation. For the past sixty days Finland has been the victim of an unprovoked attack by the brutal Russian colossus, and for sixty days the Finns, fighting against almost insuperable odds, have hurled back each attempted advance of the invader. However, the resources of this little country are very limited, and without the moral and material support of the liberty loving people of the world, the unequal battle cannot continue for long. For reasons which affect the whole future of human liberty, America must not join in this European war. But the American people can give their help to the destitute. It can lighten their burdens as they travel the road of despair.

Finland is a small country, ap-
---Continued on Page Two---