

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N C., THURSDAY, FEB. 15, 1940

Sheriff and Mrs. Hines Return From Raleigh Hospital

Sheriff W. D. Hines and Mrs. Hines, who were injured in an auto accident in Raleigh last week, returned home last night from the Rex hospital in Raleigh, where they had been receiving treatment. Mrs. Hines, whose injuries proved to be more serious than first thought, was reported as not resting so well early Wednesday morning. Sheriff Hines has recovered sufficiently to re-assume part of his duties.

Basketball Tonight

The Tryon high school basketball team will swing into action again tonight at 7:30 when Stearns high of Columbus invades the local court. The visitors showed excellent form in defeating the fast Sunny View quintet last Friday night and are anxious to top the Tryon players. Tryon looked off in defeating Landrum Tuesday, but are expected to regain their previous form. The game starts at 7:30 and will be over by 8:30. Everyone is urged to come out and support the team.

The Tryon line up will be taken from McFarland, Dutton Beatson Vining, Taylor, Melton, Cooksey, Jackson, Chapman, Ed Beatson, and Ford. The referee will be Culler (Appalachian).

P.-T. A. MONDAY

The Tryon Parent-Teacher Association will meet on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the school auditorium. Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln will be the speaker.

CURB REPORTER

Left Hendersonville escorted by police car with siren screaming. One motorist passed our bus and got cold feet when he saw the patrolmen and dashed in between us. He slowed us up a bit and the cop had to wave him on . . . Augusta gave us a royal welcome at the Bon Air Hotel, a beautiful place. Mayor James M. Woddall and State Senator Isaac Peebles gave greetings of welcome. The food was good. The orchestra played "Carolina Moon" in our honor. Everything was free. Real hospitality. Harry Gage of the Augusta Chronicle sat at our table and entertained us . . . Hickory gave each of the hosts a souvenir hickory stick. Mayor Bryson of Asheville gave the Augusta mayor a Biltmore homespun suit from Fred Seely, and a homespun tie to match from Senator Bacon's Tryon homespun. Charlotte group gave us crackers, popcorn, peanuts, etc. Asheville gave us each a beautiful white carnation. The spirit of fellowship is very delightful. John E. Jones of the Asheville Citizen-Times married Miss Ruth McFee's niece and namesake . . . Mayor Will W. Edwards of Highlands lived for eight years in Green Creek and his step-mother was a Feagan. He was interested in the Polk County ad in The Bulletin and noted

-----Please Turn To Back Page-----