TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, FEB. 19, 1940

CURB REPORTER

Tampa gave us royal entertainment with reception and dinner at the Columbia Spanish at Ybor City restaurant. It was seasoned so nicely that I never ate as much in my life. Our meal was served in the exclusive patio room, rhumba music, Spanish songs, fountain, palms growing within the building made us feel as if in another country. Tampa Mayor Clancey was very hospitable. C. B. Wade of the Utilities Commission gave a talk on North Carolina, but no one wanted to hear speeches last night. The atmosphere was not right for them. The accordion palyer, an Englishman, who had been on the stage many North Carolina cities, played familiar songs and kept the crowd singing. Later we were guests at the dog racing. All the guests were presented cigars made in Tampa . . . Bradenton was our first stop this morning. Nice reception at the Chamber of Commerce; beautiful town. Called up Dr. and Mrs. John Brittan Clark. They asked to be remembered to Tryon friends . . . Lunch at Sarasota as guests of the City. Mayor A. E. Smtih of Sarasota and our Mayors Bryson, Douglas, Senator Bacon were speakers. We were driven in private cars about the city. Our host here was Maxwell E. Cook. We called it a Cook's tour in his honor. Visited Ring-
