Mr. K. A. Bowen, President,
Chamber of Commerce.
Tryon, North Carolina.

Dear Mr. Bowen:

I appreciate your sending me a copy of the Tryon Daily Bulletin. It is quite unique and I enjoyed looking through it.

The delegation from your State was here yesterday and I had the pleasure of spending the afternoon with them. It was quite a jovial party and we enjoyed every minute of their stay in The Sunshine City.

The clippings that you requested, from our two newspapers, are enclosed and I only regret that it was not possible for you to have been along with the boys.

With sincere greetings and kindest personal regards, I am

Cordially,
Burwell Neal, Manager.
Chamber of Commerce.

Southern Railway System.
Washington, D. C. Feb. 15th.

Mr. E. A. Emmermann, Jr.
Manager Oak Hall Hotel,
Tryon, N. C.

Dear Mr. Emmermann:

Referring to your letter of the 12th to Mr. Oliver in regard to annoyance caused by whistles of our engines running thru Tryon:

I have sent copy of your letter to Mr. O. B. Keister, General Manager, Knoxville, Tenn., with request that he handle it with the local people in an endeavor to have the blowing of whistles by our engines kept to a minimum necessitated by their operation.

Faithfully yours,
H. A. DeButts, Vice-Pres.

Lenten lecture tomorrow afternoon at the Oak Hall hotel at 4 o'clock, the second in the series offered during Lent by Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln on the theme, "Lord, Teach Us to Pray—The Prayers of Jesus as Revelations of His Teachings." The particular subject tomorrow, "Hallowed be thy Name—Man's Right Attitude Toward God." The devotional service will be led by Rev. Edward M. Graham, pastor of the Methodist church of Tryon. Everyone invited.
